

November 13, 2023

Hey Trojans! We hope everyone is doing well! In case you are curious, this Wednesday is "I Love To Write" Day! Take a minute to celebrate by writing yourself a note reflecting on your accomplishments in life so far or emailing someone a quick thank you for the support they have given you this semester.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Love the LSAT Analytical Reasoning (Logic Games) Section?

June 2024 is the last time you will be able to take the Analytical Reasoning section. The section will be replaced by a second section of Logical Reasoning in future tests.

If you are not sure if the Analytical Reasoning section is a strong one for you, please consider taking the free diagnostic LSAT in Khan Academy soon to self-assess.

If the Analytical Reasoning section is one of your strongest areas, that June LSAT might be for you! Use the study plan Khan Academy provides to help you strategize how to tackle the 250-300 hours of recommended study time and see how it goes!

Unable to Meet for Your Advising Appointment

We know that this time of year is very busy and juggling priorities is essential. If you know ahead of time that you will not be able to meet for your advising appointment, please find the appointment that you scheduled in Calendly or Compass and hit the "Cancel" button.

This will open up that appointment slot for a fellow student in need. This is a very busy season for all of us so we understand! 😊
