Career Pathways

October 23, 2023

Good morning Trojans 🍌 As you can tell from this week's newsletter, there is A LOT going on the next week, especially for pre-law students.

If you are a pre-law student, we highly recommend the following:

- Attend the USC Law School Information session on Monday (details in "Upcoming Events")
- Attend the Law School Fair this Thursday (view FAQ video here)
- Join us at 8AM this Saturday to take the train to the LSAC Forum in DTLA (details in "Upcoming Events" section)
- Come back to campus for the afternoon and/or Sunday to volunteer as a Student Bailiff at USC's very first Moot Court Regional Tournament (details in "Opportunities")

Los Angeles LSAC Law School Forum*Saturday, October 28 | 10AM-4PM PT | Millennium Biltmore Hotel

Each year, LSAC Law School Forums serve as invaluable opportunities for aspiring law students to learn about law school and connect with law school representatives. By attending an LSAC Law School Forum — whether in-person or online — you'll be able to connect directly with law school representatives from across North America, learn about financial aid and the law school admission process, and get answers to any questions you may have. Nicer casual dress, no suits required! Free registration here.

BONUS: Join some members of the Pre-Law Advising Team on the trip to the LSAC Forum! Meet us at the Expo/USC Metro Station on the "downtown" side of the station at 8AM to travel together. All you need is a Metro TAP card (you can purchase one for less than $5 at the station or use your USC Student U-Pass card). At 9AM, LSAC is hosting a Financial Aid Essentials panel, which takes a deeper dive into law school financial aid, followed by the school fair (200+ law schools). Come check it out with us, even if you aren't planning to apply to law school for a few years—It won't hurt to start early!
