

An aerial photograph of the Guggenheim Museum Bilbao, a modern building with a curved, metallic facade, situated on the banks of the Nervión river. The building's unique design features large, reflective panels that mirror the sky and surrounding city. In the foreground, a large, dark, spider-like sculpture stands on a paved plaza. The river flows to the right, with a bridge visible in the distance. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. The word "BILBAO" is superimposed in the center of the image in large, bold, white letters with a thick black outline.
