

2025–2026 J. Wesley Robb Endowed Scholarship in Human Values

The J. Wesley Robb Endowed Scholarship in Human Values was established in 1987 by administrators, faculty, and former students of Professor Emeritus J. Wesley Robb to honor his lifelong service to the University of Southern California. More than 9,000 students took his “Human Values” course, or one of his seminars in medical ethics, philosophy of religion, or contemporary ethical issues.

Applicants must be students majoring in the USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences who will be seniors during the 2025–2026 academic year with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5. Recipients are chosen for their demonstration of significant moral leadership in the campus community, evidence of a commitment to human values, and deep concern for others. Because is a tuition-only award, students who are already receiving full tuition awards are not eligible to apply.

To apply, send the following information by 5 p.m. on Friday, March 7, 2025 along with this completed form to:
