Happy Lunar New Year!

The East Asian Studies Center would like to wish you a happy and prosperous Year of the Ram! Please see events around USC and Los Angeles below for ways to celebrate with family and friends.

Event Wrap: USC-Yonsei Joint Symposium and Korean Teachers Training Workshop

Last weekend, the first USC-Yonsei Joint Symposium and the 15th annual Korean Teachers Training Workshop met as a part of an ongoing effort to increase interest in the teaching and learning of Korean in the United States. This year's theme was "Korean Vocabulary and Grammar Education." The Keynote Speaker Professor Sahie Kang spoke to more than 30 attending educators about language education and assessment with emphasis on standardized curricula. Three invited speakers from Korea's Yonsei University also presented.

Save the Date: EASC/KSI Faculty Book Launch for Brett Sheehan and Sandra Fahy

EASC and KSI will host a joint celebration for the book launches of professors Brett Sheehan and Sandra Fahy's newest publications! Faculty in the field, Georgia A. Mickey and John S. Park will discuss Professor Sheehan's and Professor Fahy's books with a light reception to follow. RSVP
