Save the Date: EALC Graduate Student Conference

Memory, Moment, and Mobility in East Asia is the first East Asian Studies Graduate Student Conference hosted by the G-SEA (Graduates Studying East Asia) organization at the Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures at the University of Southern California.

Co-sponsored by the USC East Asian Studies Center, Center for Japanese Religions and Culture, Korean Studies Institute, Bryan Singer Division of Critical Studies, and Center for Transpacific Studies, this conference allows young scholars to present their research to both their peers and eminent scholars who work on East Asian studies throughout Southern California. The keynote panel features professors Michael Berry of UC Santa Barbara, Jennifer Jung-Kim of UCLA, Marc Steinberg of Concordia University (Montreal), and Hongyin Tao of UCLA.

SATURDAY - SUNDAY | APRIL 11 - 12 | SOS B40

Upcoming Event: Festschrift in Honor of John E. Wills, Jr.

EASC will host an event dedicated to the remarkable career of Professor Emeritus John "Jack" E. Wills, Jr. and the contributions he has made to the academic field in History and to the University of Southern California. Friends, colleagues, and students of Professor Wills will present articles and papers related to his research, leading to a publication in his honor. This event is co-sponsored by the USC Department of History, USC Korean Studies Institute and USC-Huntington Early Modern Studies Institute.
