Upcoming Event: Fall 2015 EASC Faculty Luncheon Meeting

Each semester, EASC invites our affiliated faculty to join us for a luncheon meeting. Faculty will have the opportunity to hear about the latest activities and other news regarding EASC and its community, as well as a chance to interact with colleagues in a relaxed atmosphere. Please RSVP at least a week in advance.

Upcoming Event: USC Workshop on Japanese Extensive Reading

Participants will learn the theory and the benefit of Extensive Reading in the process of second language acquisition. They will also learn how to establish a book collection for Japanese Extensive Reading and how to organize and conduct Japanese Extensive Reading courses, clubs, and student organizations.

SAT-SUN | OCT 3-4 | TAPER HALL

Call for Applications

U.S.-Korea NextGen Scholars Program Application

The U.S.-Korea NextGen Scholar Program is a two-year program providing opportunities for mid-career Korea specialists to discuss issues of importance to U.S.-Korea relations with policymakers, government officials and opinion leaders in Korea and the United States, learn how to effectively engage with the media, participate in the policymaking process, and gain experience as public intellectuals helping to bridge the scholarly and policy communities and address issues of importance to the U.S.-Korea relationship. Dr. Victor Cha and Dr. David Kang will serve as senior advisors, along with a group of senior scholars in both Korea and the United States.
