Wednesday: EASC Taiwanese Documentary Series

The third and final installment of this three-part series will take place on Wednesday, September 16 from 2:00pm-10:00pm which will feature three films on Taiwanese politics and economy. The feature film, Sunflower Occupation, documents the historic Sunflower Movement that saw hundreds of thousands of students flooding the streets of Taipei and some even occupying the national parliamentary building. The filmmakers will be present for a panel discussion and Q&A with the audience. Admission is FREE.

Event Wrap: 2015 EASC Global East Asia Japan Reunion Dinner

Last Friday, the 2015 EASC Global East Asia (GEA) Japan cohort joined Professor Lon Kurashige, TA Yu Tokunaga and EASC staff for a festive reunion dinner in Little Tokyo. Each GEA scholar shared his/her favorite moments while on the program, many stating that it was one of the best decisions and one of the most transformative experiences in their lives so far!

Event Wrap: Study Abroad Fair

The Fall Study Abroad Fair last Thursday on Trousdale proved to be a success! Despite the heatwave, a large number of students came to the various booths and signed up for programs to destinations all over the world. Our very own Program Officer Alexandria Wroblewski and Program Specialist Jier Dong were present to meet and greet prospective students wanting to go to China and Japan through the Global East Asia (GEA) program and also potential applicants for the FLAS Fellowship for the study of Chinese, Japanese or Korean. For details about GEA, please click HERE. For details about FLAS, please click HERE.

Event Reminder: Fall 2015 EASC Faculty Luncheon Meeting

Each semester, EASC invites our affiliated faculty to join us for a luncheon meeting. Faculty will have the opportunity to hear about the latest activities and other news regarding EASC and its community, as well as a chance to interact with colleagues in a relaxed atmosphere. Please RSVP at least a week in advance.

Upcoming Event: USC Workshop on Japanese Extensive Reading

Participants will learn the theory and the benefit of Extensive Reading in the process of second language acquisition. They will also learn how to establish a book collection for Japanese Extensive Reading and how to organize and conduct Japanese Extensive Reading courses, clubs, and student organizations.
