JOINT CONSORTIUM DISSERTATION WORKSHOP ON CONTEMPORARY EAST ASIA

May 18, 2018 | 12:00 PM - 2:00 PM | USC | FLYER

The University of Southern California East Asian Studies Center is pleased to announce the fourth Joint Consortium National Dissertation Workshop on "Contemporary East Asia" at the University of Southern California on May 18, 2018. The workshop aims to expand intellectual frameworks and research plans during the dissertation or thesis development and writing process, and to provide an intellectual platform for a multidisciplinary perspective for East Asian Studies. It is designed to enable students to present and engage in intensive discussions of their work in broader East Asian and multidisciplinary contexts.

The workshop will be led by three faculty mentors who focus on modern China, Japan and Korea; Stanley Rosen, Professor of Political Science, University of Southern California, William Marotti, Associate Professor of History, University of California, Los Angeles and Susan Hwang, Assistant Professor of East Asian Languages and Cultures, Indiana University.

Applicants must be enrolled full-time in a doctoral or master's program and must have begun to draft a dissertation or thesis, although they need not have advanced to candidacy. All doctoral and master's students whose area of research falls within contemporary East Asia are encouraged to apply.

Please apply here by the application deadline: March 16, 2018.

EVENT TODAY Public Speaking: Presentation

Mon, Nov 27 | 12:00 - 1:00 PM | SOS B40

The Graduate Professionalization Series continues with Public Speaking: Presentation. David Kang, Professor of International Relations and Business and Satoko Shimazaki, Associate Professor of East Asian Languages and Cultures will lead this workshop. This session is specifically designed to help graduate students with public presentation of academic work in a variety of settings, such as conferences, job talks, etc. and it will address concerns for both native and non-native English speakers.
