New Home for EASC!

After over a decade, USC East Asian Studies Center must now say goodbye to the dearly beloved College House. Beginning December 16, EASC will be housed in CAS 100, inside the white two-story building at the corner of Trousdale and 34th St. Our new address is:

3454 Trousdale Parkway, CAS 100
Los Angeles, CA 90089

Please stop by and visit us in our new location in 2016!

Prof. Brett Sheehan Featured on Dornsife News

EASC Director Brett Sheehan has been featured on USC Dornsife News for his groundbreaking new course entitled "Gaming Chinese Historical Capitalism." In this freshmen seminar, first-year students have the opportunity to experience the tumult of the last 200 years of Chinese economic history through an online game custom-designed for the course. For the news article as well as a video on Professor Sheehan's trailblazing new course, please CLICK HERE.

Internship Opportunities

USC Pacific Asia Museum

Interns work in a specific museum department and attend regular departmental meetings, but interact frequently with other departments. Aside from their specific projects, interns contribute to ongoing events and programs at the museum. They are invited to participate in monthly all-staff meetings and to attend docent lectures, curatorial tours, and other special programs at the museum. Internship positions are open to undergraduate and graduate students currently enrolled in a degree program and to recent recipients of a relevant degree.

- Arts Education/Community Engagement
- Public Programming
- Gallery Interpreters
- Visitor Research
