Event Wrap: Fall 2016 EASC Grad Mixer

Last Wednesday, EASC hosted its Fall 2016 Grad Mixer. Graduate students came from various programs throughout USC including Business Analytics, Comparative Literature, East Asian Area Studies, East Asian Languages and Cultures, MBA, Political Science and International Relations, Public Policy and Management, Religion and Sociology. It was a great opportunity for graduate students to engage with each other, sharing research interests that focus on East Asia. We were glad to welcome both new and returning students and friends. PHOTOS
