UPCOMING EVENTS

Spring 2020 EASC Events

We are excited to announce our upcoming Spring 2020 events! They will include our continued professionalization activities for graduate students, undergraduate students and faculty such as the Grad Professionalization Series, the annual East Asia Career Panel as well as our Spring Faculty Book Launch. We are also excited to highlight upcoming conferences, screenings and workshops this Spring such as the Japan in the Long 1940s: A New History Conference and guest lectures organized by our EASC affiliated faculty.

Americaville Screening and Q&A with Director Adam James Smith

Thursday, January 16, 2020 | 6:00PM - 8:00PM | ANN L105a | FLYER | RSVP

Hidden among Beijing's northern mountain range, a replica of the Wyoming town of Jackson Hole promises to deliver the American dream to its several thousand Chinese residents. In Americaville, Annie Liu escapes China's increasingly uninhabitable capital city to pursue happiness, freedom, romance, and spiritual fulfillment in Jackson Hole; only to find the American idyll harder to attain than what was promised to her. The documentary screening will be followed by a Q&A with Director Adam James Smith. This screening is co-sponsored by the USC East Asian Studies Center, U.S.-China Institute and the Huntington-USC Institute on California and the West. Please RSVP if you would like to attend.
