UPCOMING EVENT

The Enigma of Qiu Ying (c.1494-1552): A Ming Painter and His Legacy - Lecture by Dr. Stephen Little

Wednesday, February 26, 2020 | 4:00PM-6:00PM | SOS B40 | FLYER | RSVP

Few artists in Chinese history have proven as enigmatic as the Ming dynasty painter Qiu Ying (c. 1494-1552). Though one of the most famous artists of the Ming period, almost nothing is known about his life. He is said to have had few followers, yet he was the most copied painter in Chinese history. LACMA's exhibition, Where the Truth Lies: The Art of Qiu Ying, grapples with such issues as artists who cross social boundaries, degrees of literacy in Ming dynasty China, and the importance of connoisseurship in determining quality and authenticity.

Please join us for a lecture by Dr. Stephen Little who will discuss the scholarly background to the first exhibition on Qiu Ying ever organized outside of Asia. The exhibition will be on view at LACMA from February 9 - May 17, 2020. The lecture is co-sponsored by the USC East Asian Studies Center, Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures and Department of Art History.

Stanford East Asia Library - Wang Jingwei Online Exhibition

The Stanford East Asia Library is pleased to announce the launch of a new online exhibition featuring photographs of the regime of Wang Jingwei 汪精衛 (1883-1944), who administered large swathes of Japanese-occupied east, central, and south China from March 30, 1940 until the Japanese surrender in 1945, collaborating with the Japanese occupiers during the Sino-Japanese War. The 194 photographs featured in this exhibition once belonged to Lin Baisheng, a newspaper editor who served as Minister of Publicity for Wang Jingwei's government.
