(PiB) and CIEE. You can view more photos from the luncheon on our EASC Facebook page here.

EAAS MA Student - Steve Literati IV Publication "Local Competitors Replace Uber, Struggle with Controversy"

One of our East Asian Area Studies graduate students recently published an article entitled "Local Competitors Replace Uber, Struggle with Controversy" on Glimpse from the Globe, a USC online student-run publication. He discusses the challenges ride hailing services face in local markets across East and Southeast Asia. You can read his article here.

East Asian Library_ Free Books - DML 107

The East Asian Library (EAL) has set up a book truck in the EAL's Reading Room in Doheny Memorial Library (DML) for books in East Asian languages that duplicate the Library's holdings. Over the years they have received donations of books from many individuals and are now offering them for free to anyone who would like to add them to their own personal collection. The initial group of titles are Chinese-many of them on Buddhism-but the languages and subjects will vary as they go through the donation boxes, so feel free to check out the book truck whenever you pass through the Reading Room. The books will be on a red book truck outside DML 107.
