UPCOMING EVENT

Job Search: Succeeding Beyond Academia

Monday, October 28, 2019 | 12:00PM-1:00PM | SOS B40 | FLYER | RSVP

To complement today's workshop on Job Search: Succeeding in Academia, the second workshop of the Grad Professionalization Series is on Job Search: Succeeding Beyond Academia. This workshop will be led by Rebecca Corbett, Assistant University Librarian of Japanese Studies, Gloria Koo, Associate Director of the Korean Studies Institute and Matthew Gratias, Director of the Pacific Region National Security Innovation Network, and will explore diverse career options and how to leverage PhD training for non faculty positions, both within and outside academia.

The Grad Professionalization series is sponsored and organized by the Center for International Studies, East Asian Studies Center, and Korean Studies Institute.

EVENT WEDNESDAY EAAS MA Fall Semester Luncheon

Wed, Oct 2 | 12:00-2:00PM | L.A. Live

EASC will host the East Asian Area Studies MA Fall Semester Luncheon on Wednesday, October 2 at L.A. Live. EAAS MA students will have the opportunity to meet and connect with their cohort off-campus. This event was by invitation only and is open only for first and second year EAAS MA students. We look forward to seeing our EAAS MA students on Wednesday!

EVENT REMINDERS

Shusenjo: The Main Battleground of the Comfort Women Issue Screening and Q&A with Director Miki Dezaki

Fri, Oct 11 | 1:00-4:00PM | LVL 17

FLYER | RSVP | NEW YORK TIMES ARTICLE

Please RSVP if you would like to attend the screening of Shusenjo: The Main Battleground of the Comfort Women Issue. The film delves deep into the most contentious debates over the "comfort women" issue and uncovers the hidden intentions of the supporters and detractors of comfort women. The screening will be followed by a Q&A with Director Miki Dezaki and co-moderated by Professor Benjamin Uchiyama, USC Department of History, and Professor David Kang, USC Department of Political Science & International Relations and Director of the Korean Studies Institute. This event is co-sponsored by the USC East Asian Studies Center and Shinso Ito Center for Japanese Religions and Culture, with additional support by the Korean Studies Institute and Center for Advanced Genocide Research.

FLYER | RSVP

EASC will be hosting the 2020 Global East Asia Maymester Info Session on October 23, 2019. In 2020, there will be three Global East Asia Maymester programs going to China (Brett Sheehan), Japan-Tokyo (Benjamin Uchiyama) and Japan-Kyoto (Jason Webb). The info session will give interested students the opportunity to learn about the program components, the application process and the experiences of previous participants. As a reminder, please RSVP if you would like to attend.

EVENT WRAPS

Global East Asia China Reunion

PHOTOS

EASC hosted a reunion dinner for our returning Global East Asia China scholars last Monday at the EASC offices in CAS 100. We had a great time catching up with our cohort again and hearing all about their adventures in China. Be sure to check out their Global East Asia China Blogs for more details on their experiences conducting research in third-tier Chinese cities, hitting up all the Karaoke spots in Henan and attending a village wedding in Anyang! You can view all photos from the event on our EASC Facebook page here .

Fall 2019 EASC Faculty Luncheon

PHOTOS

The Fall 2019 EASC Faculty Luncheon was last Thursday at the University Club and we had a great time seeing new and returning faculty and affiliates. We welcome Hao Chen (POIR), Jenny Lin (Critical Studies) and Shanshan Li (EALC) to our EASC community. It was great to hear about all the upcoming events and publications and we are excited for the new academic year! You can view photos from the luncheon on our EASC Facebook page .

Princeton in Asia Fellowship Opportunity

Deadline: October 31, 2019

For the 2020-21 academic year, Princeton in Asia is offering 140 full-year fellowships for recent college graduates. Princeton in Asia offers year-long, service-oriented fellowships across 22 countries and regions in Asia. Students interested in democracy-building in Myanmar, public health in Laos, environmental policy in Nepal, or higher education all over Asia are encouraged to apply. More information on this fellowship can be found on their website.

Call for Submissions: Journal of Sino-American Affairs

Final Deadline: November 1, 2019

The Journal of Sino-American Affairs is an intercollegiate, student-led, student-run publication dedicated to providing a forum for young leaders to publish on and discuss political, economic and cultural topics relevant to the U.S.-China relationship. They are currently calling for submissions for their inaugural publication which will publish in December 2019. Interested students are encouraged to submit an article here. The early submission deadline is on October 1, 2019 and the final submission deadline is on November 1, 2019.
