Join EASC and the SCA Alumni Screening Series at a special screening of Kamome Diner, a film written and directed by a SCA Alumna Naoko Oigami. Kamome Diner is a stunningly shot, über-stylish tale of three Japanese women afoot in Helsinki. It pays tribute to the quirky cinema of Finnish master Aki Kaurismäki and conveys the topsy-turvy sensation of being a stranger in a strange land and presents food, no matter how alien, as the center of community and cultural understanding. This screening is co-sponsored by USC East Asian Studies Center and SCA Alumni Screening Series. Courtesy of Nikkatsu Corporation.
