Fall 2013 EASC Faculty Luncheon Wrap-Up

EASC affiliated faculty from different schools and departments across the university joined us at the University Club on Tuesday, October 1 for the Fall 2013 EASC Faculty Luncheon Meeting. Held every semester, the EASC Faculty Luncheon Meeting offers affiliated faculty members an opportunity to hear about the latest from EASC and its community.

Following the premiere screening of the EASC Video (right) and self-introductions from each guest, Director David Kang shared EASC news and activities for the academic year. Topics included the future of the Global East Asia program, upcoming events, EASC academic programs and new affiliated faculty, all of whom were in attendance.

Also addressed were the U.S. Department of Education Title VI NRC/FLAS grant proposal and EASC courses. Both of these are areas where EASC is always grateful for faculty support. We would like to remind faculty to please send us your CV and fill out the online form if you have not already done so. We also invite faculty interested in teaching one of our undergraduate or graduate courses to contact us.

Photos from the event can be found on our Facebook page and our Google account. If you were unable to attend this time, we will hold the Spring 2014 EASC Faculty Luncheon Meeting in April, so please keep an eye out for the announcement.
