Come learn about the Global East Asia program and application! Alumni from this past summer will talk about their experiences. Food and refreshments provided.

Global East Asia is a scholarship summer study abroad program for USC undergraduate students. This intensive program gives students the opportunity to live, study and travel in China, Japan or Korea for four weeks with a scholarship that covers airfare, housing, meals and travel. >Learn More.

New USC Semester Study Abroad in Shanghai

The USC Office of Overseas Studies has added a new semester study abroad program in Shanghai, China. This is an exciting expansion of their East Asia study abroad portfolio to 9 programs in China, Japan, Korea, and Taiwan.

Housed at East China Normal University, the Shanghai program should be of particular interest to students with a major or minor in East Asian Area Studies, East Asian Languages and Cultures, International Relations, Political Science, Economics, and Political Economy. Students can participate as soon as Spring 2014. The application deadline is Monday, October 21, and applications are available at the Office of Overseas Studies. >Learn More
