EASC Awards 10 Summer FLAS Fellowships

Congratulations to EASC's 10 Foreign Language and Area Studies \(FLAS\) Fellows for summer 2014! Four outstanding graduate and six undergraduate students were awarded the U.S. Department of Education fellowship to study intensive Chinese, Japanese and Korean through domestic and international study abroad programs. Our Fellows come from a diverse range of majors such as Chemical Engineering, International Relations, Comparative Literature, and Environmental Studies. >Meet our Summer FLAS Fellows

FLAS Fellowships are provided by a U.S. Department of Education Title VI grant to enrich the nation's pool of area and international specialists.

Event Reminder: Spring 2014 EASC Grad Mixer

THURSDAY | APRIL 17 | 4:00–6:00 PM | College House (CLH)

All USC East Asia-focused graduate students are invited to our Spring 2014 EASC Graduate Mixer to enjoy food, conversation and refreshments. Held each semester, the EASC Graduate Mixer allows graduate students focusing on East Asia to meet and engage in a relaxed setting with peers from across a wide range of disciplines and provides a great opportunity to find students with similar research topics in other fields.
