Event Wrap: Spring 2015 EASC Faculty Luncheon

Over 40 EASC affiliated faculty and friends joined the Spring 2015 EASC Faculty Luncheon last Thursday, April 23 at the University Club Scriptorium. They shared news about recent publications, awards and student achievements within the EASC community. A few of the highlights include Brett Sheehan's new appointment as the next Director of EASC, David Kang as the new CIS director and continuing as KSI director, recent and upcoming publications by Saori Katada, Lon Kurashige, Audrey Li, Dan Lynch, Sunyoung Park, Brett Sheehan, and Satoko Shimazaki, successful recruits in the POIR and EALC PhD programs focusing on EA, and the first cohort of the new PhD Program in Religion in the Asia Pacific track. PHOTOS

Event Wrap: Transferring to Four-Year Institutions

The USC-PCC Partnership event "Transferring to Four-Year Institutions" took place last Tuesday, April 21 at Pasadena City College (PCC). About 20 PCC students attended the panel that featured three USC transfer students who shared their experiences and insights. EASC Program Specialist Jier Dong moderated the event and provided further information regarding what USC and EASC have to offer transfer students and non-traditional college students.

Event Reminder: Spring 2015 EASC Grad Mixer

The Spring 2015 EASC Grad Mixer is next Thursday, April 30 4:00–6:00pm at College House (CLH). Graduate students studying East Asia from any field are invited to enjoy food, wine and conversation with students across USC and to learn more about EASC funding and other opportunities.
