UPCOMING DEADLINES

EASC 360: Global East Asia Japan

Deadline to register is this Friday, January 21!

This intensive program is a research course for USC undergraduate students, made possible by EASC and USC Dornsife. Students from all majors, schools and language backgrounds are encouraged to register.

EASC 360 Tokyo - Japanese Society and Design Thinking

EASC 360 Kyoto - Heritage, Culture, and Identity in Japan's Ancient Capital

Due to the latest news regarding the COVID-19 Omicron strain and Japan's latest travel restrictions, EASC 360: Global East Asia Maymester program has transitioned to in-person local-travel courses at USC. Local site visits will include the Huntington Library, Japan House, and LA area museums and cultural destinations. These courses do not require an application or D-clearance for 2022.

Student Journal of Asian Studies @ USC

Website | Submit a paper

The USC Student Journal of Asian Studies (SJAS@USC) is a student-run journal created by Emmy Austin, Dione Simmons, Atharva Tewari and Hannah Skinner to publish undergraduate and graduate research in various disciplines in Asian studies. They are currently looking for publication submissions from different disciplines and the applications are not restricted to any particular major/minor/department.

Publication submissions will be considered on a rolling basis until January 28, 2022. For more details on formatting guidelines and expectations, please see the SJAS website and find them on Instagram @uscjas. This journal is supported by the East Asian Studies Center.

EASC Graduate Fellowships

There is less than a month left to apply for the EASC Graduate Fellowship! These graduate fellowships provide summer stipends, typically between $1,000-$3,000, depending on the proposed course of study. The purpose of the award is to advance understanding of East Asia and/or

US-Asia relations. Awards are given based on the quality of the proposed project and budgets submitted with the application. The award may be used for research, language training or area studies, and can also be used for research including Asia in a comparative context or as a case study.

The deadline to apply for EASC Graduate Fellowships is 5:00PM on Friday, February 4, 2022.
