Happy Lunar New Year

The USC East Asian Studies Center wishes you a happy and prosperous Year of the Horse! Please see events around USC and Los Angeles below for ways to celebrate with family and friends.

Event Reminder: East Asia Career Panel

Tuesday, January 28, 2014 / 4:00-6:00 PM /
Student Union (STU) B3, USC

Want to use East Asian language and area studies skills in your future job but not sure how? Come learn about different career options from our panel of experts! All USC students are welcome. Please join us for the second annual East Asia Career Panel as a part of USC Career Fest 2014. Our impressive alumni panelists come from East Asia-related professions in international trade, business consultancy, immigration services and foreign affairs, and marketing and communications. The panel will be followed by a Q&A and networking opportunity. >More Info & RSVP

Event Wrap: Akira Talk

>Video // >Pictures

Last Wednesday, over 50 students, faculty and community members attended the talk "From Ground Zero to Degree Zero: Akira as Origin and Oblivion" by Christopher Bolton, Associate Professor of Comparative and Japanese Literature at Williams College. Organized by the USC Department of East Asian Languages & Cultures and EASC, the event generated robust discussion about Ōtomo Katsuhiro's Akira and its different mediums and meanings.
