UPCOMING EVENT

EASC New Book Series: Sinophone Studies

Sean Metzger and Lok Siu

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20 | 5:00PM - 6:30PM (PT) | ZOOM REGISTRATION

Join us for the next EASC New Book Series: Sinophone Studies event on October 20! This event will highlight The Chinese Atlantic: Seascapes and the Theatricality of Globalization (Indiana University Press, 2020) with author Sean Metzger (Professor in the School of Theater, Film and Television, University of California, Los Angeles) and discussant Lok Siu (Associate Professor in Asian American and Asian Diaspora Studies, University of California, Berkeley). This series focusing on Sinophone Studies is organized by Li-Ping Chen, Postdoctoral Scholar & Teaching Fellow in the USC East Asian Studies Center.

NEW EASC STAFF MEMBER Program Officer - Kaitlin Lam

EASC is happy to introduce our new Program Officer, Kaitlin Lam, who joined the USC Pacific Asia Museum (PAM) as a Getty Intern after graduating from Mount Holyoke College with a BA in East Asian studies with a concentration in Chinese history and art history. Kaitlin has extensive event planning and administrative experience having worked at USC PAM these past two and a half years as an education specialist and a collections management assistant.

Kaitlin has lived in China and Singapore and studied abroad in Japan. She is fluent in Mandarin Chinese and conversant in business Japanese and beginning Korean. We look forward to introducing Kaitlin to the EASC community in the coming months as we get her set up and trained. You can contact her at lamkaitl@usc.edu and her office phone is 213-740-2991.

EVENT REMINDER Diverse Career Paths After a PhD Grad Professionalization Series TUES, OCT 19 | 12:00PM-1:00PM (PT) | RSVP

Don't forget to RSVP for Diverse Career Paths After a PhD on October 19! This session will be moderated by KSI Director David Kang, and will feature Rod Albuyeh (Albell Cloud Labs), Phillip Bloom (The Huntington Library), and Suzie Mulesky (Vanguard). The workshop will explore the diverse career options within and outside academia and help graduate students leverage their PhD training in the wider job market. ## NEW SCALAR PROJECT Exploring Republican China in the USC Digital Library: An Experimental Metadata Analysis

The East Asian Library has launched a new Scalar project, "Exploring Republican China in the USC Digital Library: An Experimental Metadata Analysis" which is now available to the USC community. This exploratory study, funded by the FY2021 USC Libraries Research Grant, analyzes the metadata of over 1,500 items in various categories from digital collections related to Republican China (1911-1949) in the USC Digital Library. The results of this study, particularly the visual mapping and analysis, will help researchers gain a deeper understanding of USC's Republican China collections. You can find this Scalar project listed on the Chinese studies research guide, along with other China-related Scalar projects at USC. If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, please contact Tang Li at tangl@usc.edu.
