2014 Global East Asia Korea Reunion

Weeks after their once-in-a-lifetime journey together as a close-knit cohort, the 2014 Global East Asia Korea scholars gathered with Professor Steven Lee and TA Lucy Kim for a night of Korean cuisine and sharing of fond memories. All the participants reminisced about the wonderful times they shared and the valuable lessons they learned about Korean culture and society. To quote a few of the scholars as they recounted their GEA Korea experience: "This is something I will never forget..." "It's the best time I've ever had at USC..." PHOTOS

Upcoming Event: Makiko Sakurai

Makiko Sakurai performs Japanese Buddhist chanting (shōmyō) and shirabyōshi dance live at USC. This two-part performance offers a rare look at the music and dance of Japan's Heian (794-1185) and Kamakura periods (1185-1332). There will be a meeting/discussion with the artist in addition to her performance. For more information and to RSVP, please click here.

REMINDER: EASC Grad Mixer

The Fall 2014 EASC Grad Mixer is Thurs., October 2 from 4:00 – 6:00pm at College House (CLH). Graduate students studying East Asia from any field are invited to enjoy food and conversation with students across USC and to learn more about EASC funding and other opportunities. RSVP HERE

New EASC Program Officer: Alexandria Wroblewski

It is with great pleasure that we introduce to you the new EASC Program Officer, Alexandria Wroblewski. We are very fortunate to have Alex join us at EASC. She is already quite familiar with many of you as a recent USC graduate, receiving her BA in International Relations and Global Business, and as a former EALC student staff where she worked throughout her undergraduate career. She studied Japanese and Mandarin Chinese as well as international relations and East Asian area studies while at USC.
