UPCOMING EVENT

Diverse Career Paths After a PhD Grad Professionalization Series

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19 | 12:00PM - 1:00PM (PT) | RSVP

We had a great presentation and discussion with professors Saori Katada and Ketaki Pant at our first Grad Professionalization Series! Join us for our next event on Diverse Career Paths After a PhD on Tuesday, October 19 at 12:00 noon. This session will be moderated by KSI Director David Kang and will feature the following guest panelists:

Rod Albuyeh, Chief Data Scientist, Albell Cloud Labs and Data Science Faculty at UCSD
Phillip Bloom, Curator of the Chinese Garden and Director of the Center for East Asian Garden Studies, The Huntington Library
Suzie Mulesky, Behavioral Science Researcher, Vanguard

They will explore the diverse career options within and outside academia and help graduate students leverage their PhD training in the wider job market. RSVP with your USC email address if you would like to attend and the Zoom link will be sent to you the day before the event. The Grad Professionalization series is sponsored and organized by the Center for International Studies, East Asian Studies Center, and Korean Studies Institute.

EVENT TOMORROW

Blackness and Interwar Asia: A Mobius Strip of Identity Building

TUES, SEPT 28 | 5:00PM - 6:00PM (PT) | REGISTER

Join Asia Society Southern California in partnership with EASC, Association for Asian Studies, The East Coast Coalition and National Association for Black Engagement with Asia, for a discussion on the interplay between Blackness, Asia, and identity formation in the Interwar period with Rumors from Shanghai author Amy Sommers and historian Keisha A. Brown. Professor Brown will further explore the context for how anti-imperialism and Black internationalism of that period shaped both Black Americans' sense of identity, as well as emerging ideas of Asian nationalism and identity. The conversation will be moderated by Cleopatra Wise, Director for Asia Society's Center for Global Education, China Learning Initiatives. We hope that you will join us at this exciting event featuring two USC alums! Click here to register for this event.
