Prof. Benjamin Uchiyama invites the EASC community to an event with Sheldon Garon, the Nissan Professor of History and East Asian Studies at Princeton University

RSVP

EASC 595: Publishing & Editing, Translation, Marketing & Communication, and Graphic Design

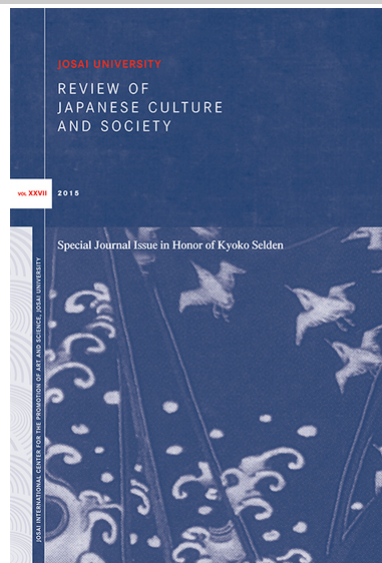

Section #25822 | 2.0 units, repeatable up to 6.0 units

Taught by Miya Elise Desjardins, Associate Professor of Teaching, Departments of East Asian Languages and Cultures & Art History; Editor-in-Chief, Review of Japanese Culture and Society

This class, conducted as a practicum workshop, allows students to explore the entirety of the publication process of Review of Japanese Culture and Society, an established peer-reviewed academic journal with a 30-year history, published by the University of Hawai'i Press. The theme of the 2022-2023 issue is "Empires in Motion, Cultures of Crossing." The workshop format encourages collaboration between students with different fields of interest, within Dornsife as well as other schools at USC such as Roski and Marshall, and with scholars and graduate students in Japan and other parts of the world.

Advanced undergraduate students may enroll in this course with instructor approval.*

For more information, please email Prof. Desjardins at miyae@usc.edu.

Peace Corps Korea

2023 Southern California Reunion

Thurs, Jan 26 | 10:00AM-8:00PM | DML 249 | RSVP

In appreciation of their service, the USC Korean Heritage Library is inviting Korea Peace Corps volunteers in Southern California to a reunion event on campus.

Attendees will have an opportunity to hear about recent research in the field, record oral histories for the archive, and share their stories about the important work they accomplished.

OPPORTUNITIES

Graduate Student DEI Travel Grant

Deadline: January 18

The Japan-US Friendship Commission (JUSFC) has awarded the Association for Asian Studies (AAS) $5,000 to support the AAS 2023 Annual Conference attendance of up to 5 graduate students in Japan Studies. The aim is to increase the presence and participation of racial and ethnic minorities as well as LGBTQ+ students, students with disabilities, as well as those of low socioeconomic status, and other underrepresented groups. Applicants do not need to be a part of an organized session, nor do they need to be members of the AAS, to receive the grant. Learn More >
