Global East Asia

DEADLINE THIS FRIDAY (NOV 11)!

There is less than a week left to apply for Global East Asia! Global East Asia is a four-week USC Maymester Study Abroad Program with two weeks in LA and two in Tokyo or Kyoto. This intensive program is a research course for USC undergraduate students, made possible by EASC and USC Dornsife. Students from all majors, schools and language backgrounds are encouraged to apply for our two programs:

EASC 360: Tokyo - Japanese Society and Design Thinking

Taught by Prof. Miya Desjardins, Art History and EALC

EASC 360: Kyoto - Heritage, Culture, and Identity in Japan's Ancient Capital

Taught by Prof. Jason Webb, Comparative Literature and EALC

Learn more about the program components, the application process and funding opportunities through our informational video! The deadline to apply is this Friday at 11:59PM!

EASC Landscape and Sustainability Studies Initiative Research Assistant

The USC East Asian Studies Center welcomes applications for a Research Assistant (RA) to support its newly launched Landscape and Sustainability Studies Initiative. The RA will serve as a resource for the initiative as well as a liaison between EASC and its partners at the Center for East Asian Garden Studies (CEAGS) at The Huntington.

The successful applicant is expected to begin in Spring 2023 and will work 10–15 hours per week throughout the semester. The hourly rate will be $25-30/hr depending on experience.

To apply, submit the application below where you can upload a cover letter, CV, a writing sample (can be a single work or a collection of different pieces but no more than 20 pages total); and names of two references by November 18, 2022.

OPPORTUNITIES

Stanford East Asia Library 2022-2023

Travel Grants

Deadline: December 15, 2022

The East Asia Library at Stanford University is now accepting applications for its 2022-23 cycle of travel grants. The purpose of these grants is to assist scholars (faculty and advanced graduate students) from outside the greater San Francisco Bay Area in accessing the Stanford East Asia Library collections for research. With funding provided by the Department of Education Title VI program, the Stanford Center for East Asian Studies will award a limited number of grants (of up to $1000 each) on a competitive basis to help defray the cost of travel and lodging for scholars of East Asia at other institutions who wish to utilize the collections at the Stanford East Asia Library between September 1, 2022 and August 14, 2023.
