EASC Global East Asia 2024

EASC Global East Asia 2024 applications are now live! Global East Asia is a four-week USC Maymester Study Abroad Program with two weeks in LA and two in Tokyo or Kyoto. This intensive program is a research course for USC undergraduate students, made possible by USC EASC and USC Dornsife. Students from all majors, schools and language backgrounds are encouraged to apply for our two programs:

EASC 360: Tokyo - Japanese Society and Design Thinking

Taught by Prof. Miya Desjardins, Art History and EALC

EASC 360: Kyoto - Heritage, Culture and Identity in Japan's Ancient Capital

Taught by Prof. Jason Webb, Comparative Literature and EALC

Learn more about the program components, the application process and funding opportunities through our informational video!

The deadline to apply is 11:59PM on Friday, November 6, 2023.

New RTPC Faculty Feature Raymond Tsang

Please join us in welcoming our new affiliated faculty member, Raymond Tsang! Raymond will be teaching our popular GE courses (EASC 150 & 160) as well as courses in EALC. He earned his Ph.D. in Cinema Studies from New York University and has taught courses such as Global Martial Arts Films and Asian Film History at both NYU and Columbia University. Raymond's research centers on the history of Hong Kong martial arts films, specifically focusing on the collaborative relationships between Hong Kong wuxia films, colonial order, and the geopolitical forces of the Cold War. Additionally, his scholarly pursuits extend to encompass interests in Third World Cinema, activist film and media, as well as transnational left-wing cinema, literature, and history. Beyond his academic endeavors, Raymond can cook many Cantonese dishes and play guitar with his guitar heroes being Steve Vai, Jimi Hendrix, Buckethead, and Masayoshi Takanaka!
