Student: Required Participation in Poster Session

At the end of each fall and spring semester, the Department of Economics will hold an event to celebrate undergraduate research. As part of the event, students who receive credit for ECON 490 will be required to attend and participate in a poster session to share their research. Participation in this event is required to receive credit for ECON 490. The in-person research event for Fall 2024 will be held on Friday, December 6, 2024 and Spring 2025 will be held Friday, May 2, 2025. Note that students who register for ECON 490 for the summer semester must be available to participate in the poster session in the following fall semester. Details about location and poster format will be provided.

Your signature below indicates that you understand the poster session requirement.

Faculty Supervisor and Departmental Approval

"I, the supervising professor, agree to supervise the student's proposed research project as stated in attachment. In my opinion, the student is academically prepared and is intentionally capable of carrying out work that will be educationally beneficial. The project outlined is in conformity with the department's approved guidelines for the directed research course as outlined in the University's Catalog."
