Proposal on Consultation Before Changes to Faculty Development Programs

We appreciate the value of programs designed to support teaching, research, and service within USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences.

As these programs are intended to aid faculty in serving our respective constituents, it is vital that faculty play an integral role in shaping the nature of these programs.

As changes are considered for faculty support programs, the Dornsife Faculty Council shall be consulted to ensure that any adjustments uphold the intended mission of the programs and/or do not hinder faculty from meeting necessary benchmarks for tenure and/or promotion.
