

FRENCH AND THE DISCIPLINES@USC

A day of interdisciplinary conversations to explore USC's current and future connections with France and the Francophone world

March 22, 2024
University of Southern California
TAPER HALL 309

Meet-and-greet

9:00 am Café-croissants
12:45 pm Déjeuner

RSVP

<https://forms.gle/h9CmV2t38wUEbGLc7>

USC Francophone Research
& Resource Center

USC Dornsife

Dana and David Dornsife
College of Letters, Arts and Sciences
Department of French and Italian

Villa
Albertine

9:30 am Opening Conversations

10:00 am Conversation 1: On Media

- Didier Pourquery (The Conversation France)
- Josh Kun (Vice Provost for the Arts, USC)

11:30 am Conversation 2: On Publishing

- Juliette Joste (Literary Director, Grasset, Paris)
- Louise Quantin (Director of Books and Ideas, Villa Albertine, French Embassy in the US)
- Edwin Hill (French & Italian, American Studies & Ethnicity, USC)

2:00 pm Conversation 3: On Networking

- Mireille Guyader (Counselor for Science and Technology, French Embassy in the US)
- Jacob Soll (Philosophy, History and Accounting, USC)

3:45 pm Conversation 4: On Connections
moderated by Lydie Moudileno (French & Italian, USC) with

- Mireille Guyader
- Juliette Joste
- Didier Pourquery
- Louise Quantin

FRENCH AND THE DISCIPLINES@USC is co-sponsored by the Divisional Dean of Humanities, the Department of French & Italian, USC FRC, the office for Science and Technology and the office for Cultural Affairs of the Consulate of France in Los Angeles