

Mexico City and Oaxaca, Mexico

Maymester 2025

SPAN 396: Food, Culture, Art and Biodiversity in Oaxaca

May 19th - June 7th, 2025

Come explore the cuisine, traditional and street art, biodiversity and indigenous communities of Oaxaca. We will be based in Oaxaca City and explore the mountains, coast, archeological sites and indigenous towns. You will stay in a lovely bed and breakfast. Students need an intermediate level of Spanish to participate.

For more information contact Prof. Sarah

Portnoy: portnoy@usc.edu to set up an interview time

Informational session

October 9, 2024 at 6 PM

THH 156 DLibrary

Estimated Costs (excluding Spring Tuition):

Flight to Oaxaca RT: $400

Meals not covered by program $150

Room & Board: $380